Mission Sunday

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, and like the Good Friday collection for the Holy Land and Peter's Pence, it is one of three yearly universal Church collections. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration.

The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet" (Mt 22:9).

Thank you for your prayers and generosity. For more information, visit www.missio.ie

FREEDOM TO LIVE FULLY, UNTIL DEATH COMES

As 'assisted suicide' is being considered by politicians in London and Dublin this week, Archbishop Eamon Martin has said, "For all those who cherish a culture of life across these islands, the introduction of laws to permit assisted suicide is an affront to a safe and protective society. Such legislation should be strongly opposed. As a society we are defined by the extent to which we care for our most vulnerable persons including those suffering from disabilities, terminal illness or otherwise nearing the end of life. While this is a Gospel imperative, it is noteworthy that medical and healthcare professionals are also gravely concerned at an evolving political ideology which would interfere with their calling to 'do no harm' and which would legally erode the right to life at all stages."
